COMMUNICATED. TRUTH

Truth is a brilliant star, whose lucid ray Illumines clearly all on which it shines, For the enquiring soul points out the way,

And leads the mind to that for which it pines. By its pure light all error is dispell'd, The judgment can assume its proper sway, And prejudice and passion by it quelled,

Unto their sov'reign, Reason, homage pay. When all created things to ruin fall, And Time itself at length shall cease to be, Immortal Truth shall then surviving all,

Blooming, live on throughout eternity. For why! Truth is a part of God, And hence we know that it can never die, But flourishing in verdure, like the Rod. Of Aaron, it will bloom beyond the sky!
